11:00-12:00 PM	Hello CAT Welcome to CAT! Join us in a quick networking workshop to meet all the faces behind the tireless work that goes into student activism. Take a sip of your coffee and chit chat with your new CAT crew! (Coffee cart provided by Sip 'N Coffee)
12:00-2:00 PM	Jumu'ah Prayer with Imam Suhaib Webb and Break
2:00-3:00 PM	How Much Are You Willing To Risk? Student organizing is a multifaceted process and should be approached as such. As students are still learning to perceive the world around us, applying principles to our organizing can often feel challenging. Together, we will explore what it means to organize with conviction to build a foundation of beliefs and values that not only grounds us, but drives us to confront the question of purpose itself. What are we truly here for? What are we willing to risk? The work of liberation demands more than good intentions; it's meant to transform principle into sacrifice, and conviction into action. Speakers: Fatima Muhammed, Jinan Chehade, Leena Odeh Moderator: Jenin Mahdi
3:00-3:15 PM	Asr Prayer
3:15-4:30 PM	Theory Of Change: Reshaping The Foundation Every great school club starts with a big idea but how do you turn that idea into real change? This panel dives into the Theory of Change, a simple but powerful way to plan and grow clubs that actually make a difference. Through real-world case studies and interactive dialogue, the session will demonstrate how a well-crafted Theory of Change can clarify goals, strengthen accountability, and guide adaptive learning. Attendees will leave with practical insights and frameworks to design, test, and refine their own theories of change for stronger, more sustainable impact. This session will help you turn your vision into action and action into lasting impact. Speaker: Nouha Boundaoui Moderators: Noor Hejja, Mallak Ahmad
4:30-4:45 PM	Maghrib Prayer

CAMPUS ACTIVISM TRACK (CAT) - FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28TH, 2025ROOM: DR. REFAAT ALAREER*7:00-8:00 PM*Martyrs In Islam

Join the Palestine Diaspora Movement as they delve into the complexities of martyrdom in Islam. As the people of Gaza endure genocide, western media liberalizes our terminology and concepts. Therefore, we ask: what does it mean to devote yourself to the movement while being rooted in Islam? Follow along for a grounding, faith-rooted workshop on the true meaning of martyrdom in Islam. Together we'll remember martyrs from Gaza by name, read Anas Al-Sharif's final words, and use simple practices to connect to the struggle for freedom in Palestine.

CAMPUS ACTIVISM TRACK (CAT) - SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29TH, 2025ROOM: DR. REFAAT ALAREER*2:00-4:15 PM
(pause for Asr)Campaign Building

In this interactive session, we'll explore how to plan a campaign from the ground up: setting clear goals, building a strong team, and choosing effective strategies to make your message heard. We'll start with the fundamentals of campaign planning, move into turning those plans into direct actions, and finish by learning how to engage in productive negotiations with university administration. Together, we'll discover how to transform passion into action — and action into lasting change on your campus.

Speakers: CAT TeamModerators: Adam Alkiliani and Mutasem Moussa*4:15-5:15 PM*Maghrib Prayer and Break*5:15-6:00 PM*Crisis Room

Emergency! You and your fellow student organizers just got word that an Israeli official is visiting your campus. You and your peers find the fact that your university would bring in someone from a settler colonial state, appalling. Start brainstorming ideas of actions and mobilizations you all can quickly organize to let your university and fellow students know that this unjust visit will not go unnoticed! Think of strategy, social media, and framing. Good luck!

Speakers: CAT TeamModerators: Lena A and Jenin Mahdi*6:00-7:00 PM*Leading in a Time of Followers

What does it mean to lead in a time of followers? In a time where leadership has become corrupt and principles are compromised for power, how do we understand what it truly means to lead Islamically? This session will explore the religious, moral, and spiritual responsibilities of leadership in Islam - especially in a time when many have normalized ties with the Israeli oppressor. We'll examine what it means to stay firm on Allah's path through the teachings of Allah and His Messenger. Join us with an open heart for an eye-opening discussion to grow together and lead with purpose in a world full of followers.

Speakers: Suhaib Webb and Hatem BazianModerator: Khaleel Saadeh*7:00-8:00 PM*The Answer To Your Questions

Got questions? We've got answers! In this session, members of the CAT team will answer the questions you've submitted throughout the conference, offering guidance and solutions. Whether you're facing challenges on your campus or looking for advice on taking your organization to the next level, this is your chance to get the answers and support you need to make an impact.

Speakers: CAT TeamModerators: Ayah Ali and Mallak Ahmad*8:00-8:30*Bye CAT

As student activism continues to garner power, we encourage you all to never stop fighting for the Palestinian cause. We implore you to use the knowledge and resources CAT has provided you with to become a powerhouse on your campus. Let's end this year with some great conversations, new connections, and hope for a liberated Palestine!
